

Designing Good

ZEPHYR features gravity-defying feats of stratospheric skill by performers with unique talents. Many of those performers and their acts embody different earthly elements, with the show as a whole focusing on clean energy and conservation. On this page, you'll find four uniquely labeled quadrants. Use those spaces to draw or write about: an imaginary circus character, what kind of acts that character performs, their unique costume and what positive message they would send to their audience. Then, share your amazing creation with a friend!
