

Todo Sobre Usted (All About You)

And now for a design challenge that's all about you! Central America consists of 7 countries and South America consists of 12 sovereign countries and two territories. Each of them is represented by myriad traditions and cultures which are present in arts, food and clothing. If you could create an outfit or costume that represents who you are, what would it look like? What colors, shapes or patterns would you incorporate? Use the space below to create an outfit inspired by all the things that make you, you!
